

College Notes.

The attention of the readers of the EVANGELIST is earnestly called to the work of Ashland University and the announcements for the coming college year.

The university offers instruction in TEN DEPARTMENTS. Our Preparatory course is in itself thorough and practical and will fit one for the Freshman Class. The Normal course is equal to that of the best schools. When completed, it thoroughly qualifies one for the work of the teacher. The regular work is done in the college courses. Both Scientific and Classical instruction is given. These courses compare favorably with those of other colleges. The advantages offered in the Shorthand, Type-writing and Business departments are equal to the best. Nor are the Musical and Art departments less fully equipped. These departments are worthy of the patronage of those seeking these accomplishments. To those who desire an education in Theology, our Theological courses of study are open.

The Faculty the coming year will be stronger than ever before. Each instructor is a specialist in the particular department under his or her charge. Each teacher in the University is a Christian. The students are under positive Christian influences. Each teacher takes personal interest in each student's progress.

Another item of interest not to be forgotten is the fact that expenses at Ashland are less than at any other place where equal advantages are offered.

The fall term will begin Tuesday, Sept. 10, 1895.

We have a beautifully executed and artistic catalogue, brimful of valuable information which we will be pleased to send you. If you are interested tell us so by writing a postal card. Any information cheerfully given. Address,

ASHLAND UNIVERSITY,
Ashland, O.

It will cost you less to go to school at Ashland than any other place where equal advantages are afforded.

CHANCELLOR J. M. Tombaugh, A. M., will be one of the instructors in the University next year. Prof. Tombaugh is a finished scholar and a magnificent teacher.

THE Musical department of Ashland University will be under the careful and efficient management of Miss Berkley. No effort will be spared to make the coming year the most successful in the history of the University. The terms are reasonable and the courses offered equal to those of our leading conservatories.

PROF. J. C. Beal has been re-engaged as principal of the Commercial department. This will be pleasant news to the many friends of Prof. Beal, and those who know his ability as a teacher will feel that the Board has not made a mistake in its selection. He is a graduate of the Iron City College, Pittsburg, Pa., and has been for several years a teacher, besides having practical experience as book-keeper. He knows how to do the work, and teaches you not only how to do the work, but to do it. The course here is thorough and complete, being the same as that given at the best schools in the country. The success of our students in actual work is our best reference. "You have done the work better than anyone we have ever had in our employ," is the language of his employer to one of our graduates, at the end of his first week's work. Any information cheerfully given.

WE want 100 students next year. Tuition, if the 100 are secured, will be only $25 for the year of 39 weeks.

Our Dead.

NIELSEN.—In Herrington, Kansas, July 2, 1895, brother J. C. Nielsen. Born in Denmark, Nov. 29, 1826. Married May 27, 1853. This union was blessed with fifteen children, of which seven and the mother mourn the loss of a loving father. He had forty-one grand children and one great grand child. He came to America in 1870, joined the Baptist church in 1872, in which he was a member two years. When he and his son-in-law, Christian Hope, (the missionary) found in a family Bible a brief history of a people who observed the Lord's commandments, such as trine immersion, feet-washing, the Lord's supper, a full meal, not going to war, not making oaths, or swear under any circumstances, they made inquiry after such a people. They then lived in Iowa, and found them in Hickory Grove, (I think Carroll Co.,) Ills., in the G. B. church, and joined them in August, 1874. He was the first Danish member known. He remained in that church till January 1893, when brother A. J. Hixon held meetings here, then joined the Brethren church. Six of the children living have joined the G. B. church, one son left it and joined same time as his father, a daughter was disowned for violating the dress regulations. Brother Nielson was a Bible student since he was about eighteen years old, and was far better posted than the average reader. He was a man of much experience, had gone through many trials and troubles, both spiritual and temporal. The last day before he died he was anointed in the name of the Lord, and died in a living faith of Christ who was his Redeemer. Funeral services by T. J. Pearson. N. C. NIELSON.

TRENT.—In the Listie congregation, Somerset Co., Pa., July 4, 1895, brother William N. Trent, aged 67 years, 8 months and 23 days. Brother Trent was the senior deacon of this congregation, since its organization, and efficiently performed his duty, endearing himself to all by his genial, open-hearted, social and charitable disposition. He was the loving husband and father, the kind and generous friend, the wise counsellor and devoted brother, and in his death, each member of the Listie church and the community at large has lost a personal friend. Truly "There is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Israel." Who will fill his place? He leaves a loving wife, one daughter and three sons to mourn their loss, namely, Sadie Hunter, who is a widow at home; Albert, of Johnstown; George, of Listie; and Dassie, of Findlay, O. May that peace of God which passeth all understanding keep their hearts and minds through Jesus Christ.

JOHN H. KNEPPER, pastor.
